

PSI Project Management Ltd Privacy Policy

Introduction

PSI Project Management Ltd respects your right to privacy and is committed to safeguarding the privacy and confidentiality of any personal information we collect.

This policy sets out how we collect and treat your personal information in accordance with the New Zealand Privacy Act 2020.

PSI Project Management Ltd will only collect information that is reasonably necessary for the performance of our business activities.

1. Information Collection

In order to access our services, it is necessary that we collect personal information to be able to communicate with you. Your personal information will be gathered at the point at which you have contacted us via email or phone or by completing an online form on our website (www.psiprojects.co.nz).

Types of information we collect and hold:

The type of personal information that we collect, and hold is information that is reasonably necessary for the proper performance of our various functions and activities.

When we collect personal information, we:

- Check that it is reasonably necessary for our functions or activities
- Check that it is current, complete and accurate.
- Record and hold your information securely in our Information Record System
- Retrieve your information when we need to access it to conduct our services and activities for which you have consented to.

Upon request you have the right to:

- Access your personal information held by PSI Project Management Ltd.
- Correct your personal information.
- Request your personal information is destroyed or de-identified when it is no longer needed for any purpose for which it may be used or disclosed provided that it is lawful for us to do so.
- We will not use government related identifiers for the purpose of identifying you unless this is required by law (e.g. your IRD Number if this is required).

The type of information that we typically collect, and hold can range from professional contact information to sensitive data depending on the service requested.

How your personal information is collected:

Personal information will be collected from you directly when you fill out and submit one of our online contact forms, or contact us via phone or email. By providing us with personal information, you consent to the supply of that information subject to the terms of this Privacy Policy. PSI Project Management Ltd will use personal information only for the purposes that you consent to.

2. Direct Marketing

We may use your personal information for the purposes of direct marketing except where you have specifically requested we don't. Where it is practicable to do so, we will obtain your consent, and you will be provided with the option to unsubscribe from direct marketing at any time. When it is not practicable to obtain consent, you will be provided with the option to unsubscribe from direct marketing once communications are sent. We market using a variety of methods including email, phone, print and social media channels.

We provide all users the option to opt out of receiving marketing material from us. Upon receipt of this request their marketing preferences are updated on our systems. If you do not wish to have your personal information used for direct marketing purposes, you may contact us and request not to receive direct marketing communications from us, at which time your marketing preferences will be updated on our systems.
